

Huntington ICAHN, The Child Care Councils of Nassau and Suffolk Counties, The Early Years Institute, Every Child Matters of Long Island, LI Jobs with Justice, MICAH, Setauket Presbyterian Church and Women's Mending Wall Invite You To

“We Must Speak”... Putting Children First

A Multicultural, Interfaith CELEBRATION AND CHOIR CONCERT

On Behalf of the Children of Long Island's Working Poor People

SUNDAY, JANUARY 17TH, 2010
4:00-5:30 PM

St. Hugh of Lincoln R.C. Church
New York Avenue, Huntington Station

Preacher: Bishop Stephanie Riddle-Green, Joshua Baptist Cathedral

Reception Immediately to Follow

Participating
Choirs:

- 8 adult choirs
- 5 children's choirs

Dix Hills United Methodist
Gathering of Light Multifaith Fellowship
Gloria Dei Lutheran Church
Joshua Baptist Cathedral
Kehillath Shalom Synagogue

Presbyterian Church of Sweet Hollow
St. Hugh of Lincoln R.C. Church
St. Philip Neri R.C. Church
United Methodist Church of Huntington/Cold Spring Harbor
Unitarian Universalist Fellowship

Admission: We teamed up with Rock CAN Roll to beat hunger! Please bring a healthy and nutritious non-perishable food donation to this event. All food will be donated to the St. Hugh of Lincoln Food Pantry. For a list of most-needed foods go to www.rockCANroll.org

Directions to St. Hugh: From the west: take the LIE to Exit 49 North (Rte 110) Drive north on Rte 110, passing the Walt Whitman Shopping Center and crossing Jericho Turnpike. Rte 110 become New York Avenue. The church is ahead about 1 mile on the right. From the east: Take the LIE to Exit 49 North (and follow above directions.) Or take Northern State to Rte 110 and follow above directions. From the south: Take Southern State to Sagtikos Parkway North. Exit at the LIE west and travel to Exit 49 North. Follow above directions.